JANE H. CARTER AND OTHERS.

DECEMBER 23, 1831.

MR. MUHLENBURG, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Jane H. Carter and others, have had the same under consideration, and make the following report:

That this case was examined, and favorably reported on, by the Committee on Revolutionary Claims of the first session of the Twenty-First Congress; and that all the material facts of the case are stated in that report. The committee therefore ask that the same may be taken, and considered as part of this report. Concurring therein, after a careful investigation of the subject, and having arrived at the same conclusion, they herewith, in conformity thereto, submit a bill for the relief of the petitioners.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SECOND STATES AND OTHERS.

LANE B. CARTIER AND OTHERS.

LANE B. CARTIER AND OTHERS.

M. MURICINESE TORINGTON DESCRIPTION OF SECOND STATES.

THE PROPERTY

The Committee on Renorationary Claims, to obout loss systems the Some analess commitments on the Some in the Some states and some states and some states and some separation and such as the following report

That time care was extended, smitsvotality reparted on, by the Lorintz tee on Revolutionary Unions of the first section of the Twamp First Considers, and that if the material facts of the cost of the case are the object, and that if the material facts of the cost of the contractive therefore the fact the fact of the report. Concurring therein, after conclusion they heresofth, in considered, and having arrived at the same conclusion they heresofth, in conformity thereto, submit a call for the relief of the politioners.